Tours description:

- * Morne Brabant (UNESCO World Heritage): The Morne Brabant is a mountain in the south-west of Mauritius, on the peninsula of Le Morne. As we ascend, we discover the mesmerising landscapes of the south-west of Mauritius and its beautiful surroundings. Small portions of the hike cross rocks and require the use of hands for stability
- * Tamarind Falls: The Tamarind Falls, also called the 7 cascades, is a hike in the heart of Mauritius. We progress in a tropical undergrowth between palm and banana trees, to discover waterfalls of Tamarind.
- * Black River Gorges: The Black River Gorges National Park, 67.54km² of pure, wild, nature. The heart of Mauritius Island, home of many endemic species. During this hike, we will get the opportunity to discover the true wealth of our Mauritian forests.
- * The Wild South: The south of the island will reveal: waterfalls, rivers, virgin forest, deserted beaches, and volcanic cliffs overlooking the ocean. Get ready for an introduction to the rivers, natural pools, waterfalls, and the azure blue sea of the Indian Ocean.
